

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

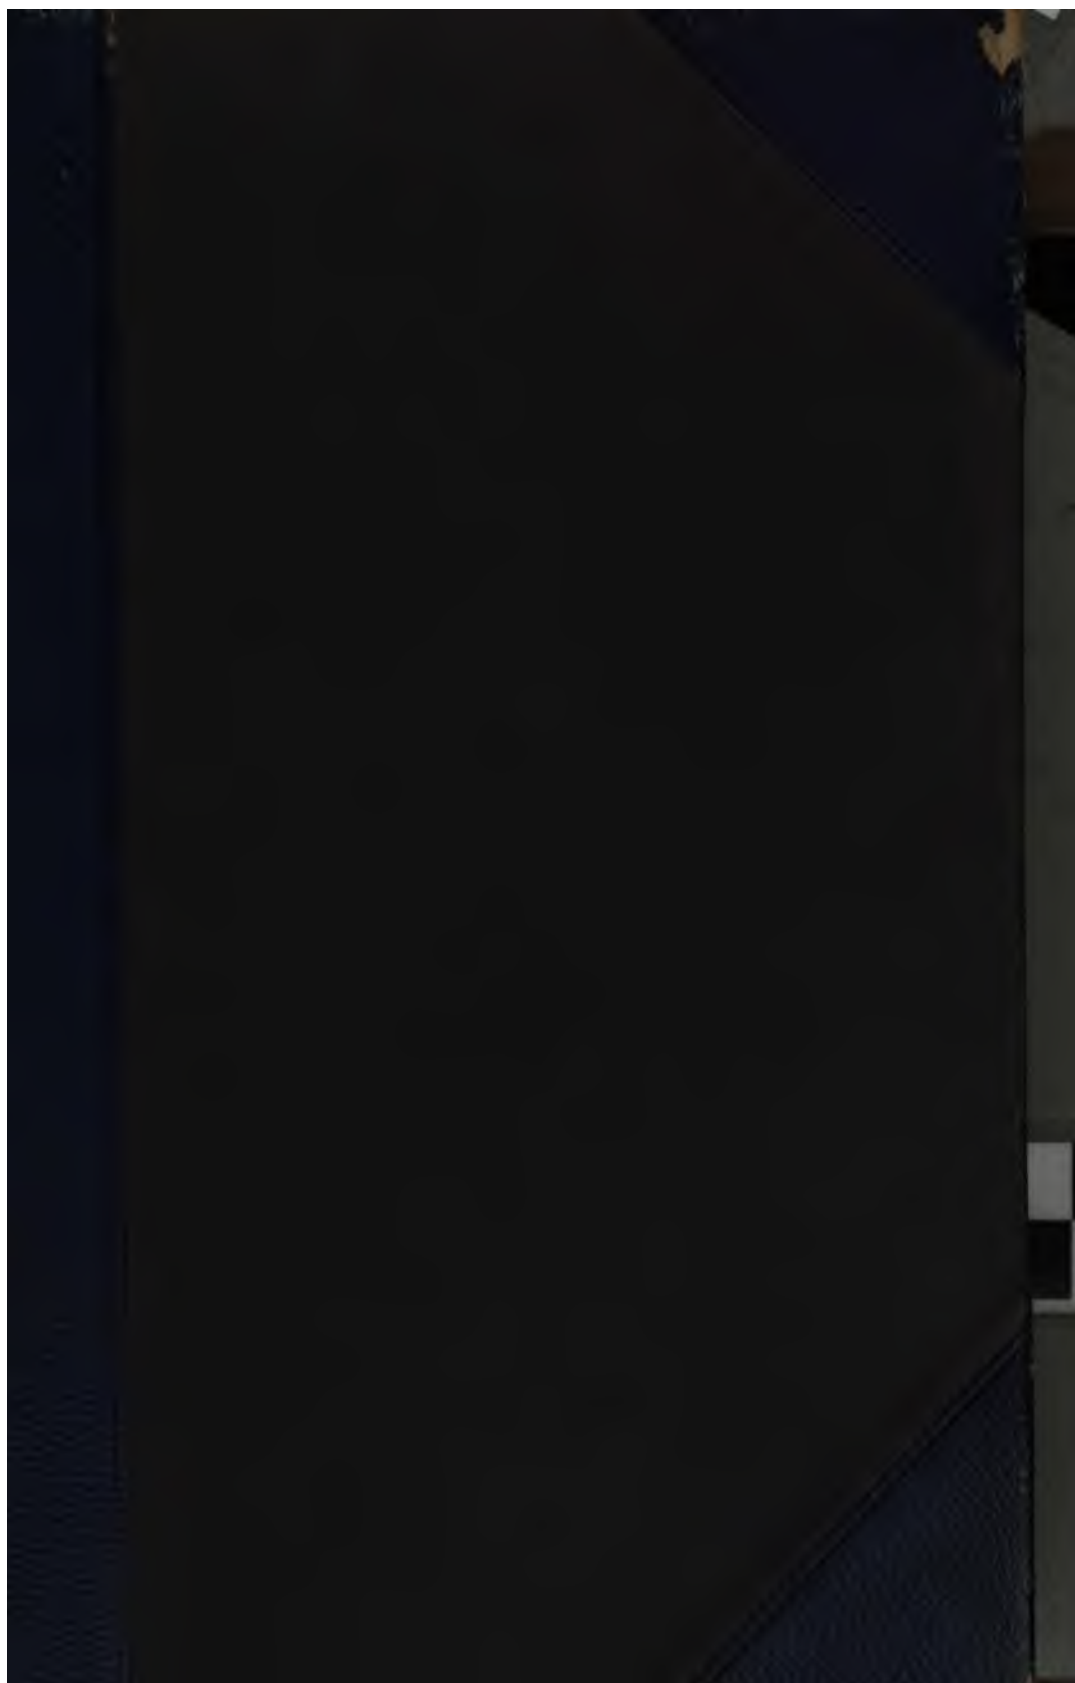

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PIDGEON (W.) Traditions of De-coo-dah, and Antiquarian Researches: comprising Extensive Explorations, Surveys, and Excavations of the Wonderful and Mysterious Earthen Remains of the Mound-Builders in America; The Traditions of the last Prophet of the Elk Nation relative to their Origin and Use; and the Evidences of an Ancient Population more numerous than the Present Aborigines. Plate. + New York: Horace Thayer. 1858. 8vo, pp. 334. Folded Plate and Woodcuts. A. 62698*

The large map is generally lacking. A record of personal examination of a great number of ancient mounds and fortifications, and of the traditions regarding them, obtained from an aged Sioux chief. The author's researches, however, are rendered almost useless by their blending with baseless hypotheses and unreliable traditions. The numerous plates afford very clear illustrations of many remains of Indian structures.

A work of the highest importance for the early history of New Granada. Only this first volume, which comes down to the year 1563, was published. The "aprobacion" is dated at Madrid, April 27, 1688; and it has been supposed by some that the volume was really printed there instead of at Amberes. It was compiled chiefly from the manuscripts of the conqueror, Gonzalo Ximenez de Quesada, and is filled with details of the manners and customs of the natives, and the conquest of the country by the Spaniards.

[PIGAFETTA (Antonio).] Le voyage et navigation fait par les Espagnolz es Isles de Mollucques. des isles quilz ont trouue audict voyage, des Roys dicelles, de leur gouuernement & maniere d uiure, avec plusieurs aultres choses. Cum Priuilegio. On les vend a Paris en la maison de Simon de Colines, libraire iure de l'universite de Paris, demourât en la rue Saint Jehan de Beauluais a lenseigne du Soleil Dor. [About 1525.] Sm. 8vo, 76 leaves, Vocabulary and Table, (4) leaves. J.C.B. 62803

Of extreme rarity. The last three lines read: "Cy finit l'extrait dudict liure, translate de Italien en Francois." This extract or summary of one of the earliest accounts of Magellan's memorable voyage round the world in 1519-22, was translated by a certain Jacques Antoine Fabre, from an original manuscript in Italian, presented by Pigafetta, who was one of the survivors of the expedition, to Louise de Savoy, the mother of King Francis I. of France. The geographical descriptions, including the accounts of Brazil and the Patagonian giants, are very curious, and exhibit some strange inaccuracies. The leaf following folio 76 contains vocabularies of "isle de Bresil, des geans de Pataghone & du peuple More de Tadore." Pigafetta's first written account of the voyage was a brief diary of occurrences; but he afterwards wrote, in French or Italian, a more complete and full narrative. In a petition to the authorities of Venice, dated August 5, 1524, he says: "ho composto un libretto de tutto el ditto viazo, qual desidero far stampir." A privilege for twenty years was granted to print this libretto, and it may have been published; but no copy of such a book has yet been found. Pigafetta died in 1534, and the earliest Italian edition extant—that included in "Il Viaggio fatto dagli Spagnivoli attorno al Mondo," 1536 (our No. 47042, Vol. xi.)—appears to be a translation, somewhat abridged, from the French of Fabre. This was reprinted in Ramusio, Vol. I. Extracts are also given in [Huttich's] "Novus Orbis," Basiliæ, 1555, pp. 524–538, and in Eden's "History of Trauayle," London, 1577. For another account of the same voyage, see Maximilian of Transylvania, our Vol. xi., Nos. 47038–42. See also [Harrisse's] "Bib. Am. Vet.," No. 134, and "Additions," pp. xxviii–xxxiv.

Four early manuscript copies of the complete narrative, including a treatise on the sphere, and accompanied by curious maps and designs, are still extant. These manuscripts, three of which are in French and one in Italian, were written apparently in the early part of the sixteenth century. The French copies are very minute in details; but the Italian, which is carelessly written and full of errors, seems to be only an extract or paraphrase.

The latter manuscript served as the basis of the following edition:

PIGAFETTA. Primo Viaggio Intorno al Globo Terracqueo ossia Ragguaglio della Navigazione alle Indie Orientale per la via d'Occidente fatta dal Cavaliere Antonio Pigafetta Patrizio Vicentino Sulla Squadra del Capit. Magaglianes negli anni 1519–1522. Ora pubblicato per la prima volta, tratto da un Codice ms. della Biblioteca Ambrosiana di Milano e corredato di note da Carlo Amoretti Dottore del Collegio Ambrosiano. Con un Transunto del Trattato di Navigazione dello stesso Autore. In Milano MDCCC. Nella Stamperia di Giuseppe Galeazzi. Con licenza de' Superiori. 4to, pp. lii, 237. 6 Maps and 10 Vignettes. A.

There are copies on large paper. At the end: "Raccolta di Vocaboli del Brasile, de' Patagoni, delle Isole del Mar Australe." This is a modernized version, with some alterations, of an Italian manuscript of the sixteenth century, belonging to the Ambrosian library at Milan. Fourteen of the curious maps and designs which accompany the manuscript are here reproduced. The work was translated into French with the following title:

PIGAFETTA. Premier Voyage autour du monde, Par Le Chev^r. Pigafetta, sur l'Escadre de Magellan, pendant les années 1519, 20, 21, et 22; Suivi de l'extrait du Traité de Navigation du même auteur; et D'une Notice sur le chevalier Martin Behaim, avec la description de son Globe Terrestre. Orné de cartes et de figures. A Paris, Chez H. J. Jansen. L'An ix. [1801.] 8vo, pp. lxiv, (4), 415, (1). 9 Maps and Plates. A. 62805

Translated by Dr. Amoretti, the editor of the Italian edition. The notice of Martin Behaim is translated from the German of M. de Murr, by H. J. Jansen.

Some copies are accompanied by the six maps bound separately in a small quarto atlas. This is the only complete edition. Major Pike was the first explorer under the government of the United States, of that vast portion of the republic now forming the States of Arkansas, Texas, and New Mexico. His accounts of the principal features of the country, and of the savage tribes which inhabited it, are accurate and interesting. Six years after completing this tour, he was killed at Little York, in Canada, by the explosion of a magazine in a fort, from which he had just before driven the garrison by assault.

Title within a double-line border. The only known copy—lacking the last leaf—was in the possession of George Brinley, Esq., of Hartford, Conn. Bunyan probably refers to this edition in the following lines of his preface to the Second Part of the "Pilgrim's Progress," London, 1684:

" 'Tis in New-England under such advance,
Receives there so much loving Countenance,
As to be Trim'd, new Cloth'd and Deck't with Gems,
That it might show its Features, and its limbs,
Yet more, so comely doth my Pilgrim walk,
That of him thousands daily sing and talk."

Of extreme rarity. A copy was priced by Mr. Ellis of London in 1884 at £21. The text begins with the following words: "Item es ist vor etlichen Jaren, durch Kay. May. beuelch ausz gefaren ausz Hispania, ein Hispanischer Her Francisco de Pysaria," etc. No copies of the original Spanish edition nor of the Flemish translation have yet been found. For another Spanish account see "La conquista del Peru," Sevilla, 1534, our No. 61097, Vol. xiv., and for an edition of the letters in French see No. 63178, infra. An Italian edition of the "Lettere di Pizarro," 1534, a small octavo of four unnumbered leaves, with a title-page composed of several lines arranged in a triangular form, and the text printed in Italic characters, was discovered at Augsburg in 1858. It commenced with a list of the treasures sent to Spain from Peru by Pizarro in January, 1534. This unique tract, the exact title of which has not been preserved, came into the possession of M. Edwin Tross of Paris, and was afterwards sent to England, where it is said to have been lost among the waste paper of the binder's shop, where it had been sent to be bound. See [Harrisse], "Bib. Am. Vet., Additions," No. 109.

Probably printed at Venice. This very rare tract, addressed to the emperor Charles v. by some unknown officer, contains an account of Pizarro's invasion and conquest of Peru. It appears to be a translation or abridgment from the Spanish, in which it was probably first printed, but no copy of such an edition is known to be extant. It is also appended to the work of Bordone, Venice, 1534-47, our Nos. 6419-21, Vol. ii. Another Italian account is contained in Ramusio, Vol. iii. For a German version see "Neue Zeytung," 1534, Vol. xiii., No. 54945. See also Vol. x., Nos. 40244, 40558-9, and Xeres (F. de).

So rare that I am unable to refer to a copy in the United States. The following tracts also relate to Pizarro and the conquest of Peru :

[PIZARRO.] Copia di una lettera di Sybilia venuta al Signor Don Lope Imbasciadore Cesareo in Venetia. [n. p. 1538?] 8vo, (2) leaves. 63180

The first leaf contains on the recto an ornamented border within which is the double-headed eagle escutcheon, and below it a globe, surrounded with the inscription, "In Omnem Terram Exiuit Cesaris Fama et i Fines Orbis Teremandata," and underneath this, "Svb Vmbra Alarvm Tvar." On the verso is a kind of zodiac. The letter begins on the recto of the second leaf and ends on the verso with "Data in Sibilia a di viij di Febraio M.D.xxxviij." Concerning this plaque, which treats of the discovery of the province of Liniguara by Diego di Almagro, see [Harris] "Bib. Am. Vet. Additions," pp. 121-124, where it is reprinted, with a facsimile of the engraved frontispiece. The only known copy is in the Magliabechiana Library at Florence.

This work contains biographies of Columbus, Alonso de Ojeda, Cortez, the four Pizarros, Diego de Almagro, and Diego García de Paredes, in which the treachery and brutality of the conquerors in the treatment of the Indians is palliated and defended. It is, in fact, an extended panegyric on the Pizarros; and together with the appended "Discurso Legal y Politico," which is a long memorial to Philip iv., was written for the purpose of stating their services, and soliciting a confirmation of former grants and remuneration to their descendants. The author calls himself a grandson of the daughter of Francisco Pizarro. As an authority the work is of little value. A continuation still remains in manuscript.

C.H.K., J.C.B. 63310

Collation: Title, reverse "The Order, Medall, and Riban of the Albion Knights," etc., with three woodcuts of arms; Dedication to Edmund Ployden, "Lord Proprietor, Earl Palatine, Governour and Captain Generall of the Province of New Albion," at the end dated "Middleboro this 5 of Decemb. 1648" and signed "Beauchamp Plantagenet," pp. 3-8; Text, pp. 9-32.

Improved title of our No. 19724, Vol. v. The country described includes portions of Delaware, New Jersey and Long Island. In the dedication of this extremely rare tract Plantagenet refers to "the two former books printed of Albion 1637, and 1642." No copy has been found of the former, and even the title of it seems to be unknown; but the latter is undoubtedly the "former Description re-printed," mentioned in Plantagenet's title-page, and comprising chapter 3, "The Description of Master Robert Evelin and 13 witnesses, printed 7 years since, and now re-printed." See No. 63312, infra.

[PLANTAGENET.] A | Description | of | the | Province | of | New Albion. | And a Direction for Adventurers | with small stock to get two for one, and good land freely. | And for Gentlemen, and all

C.H.K. 63311

Collation: Title, reverse "The Order," etc., as in the first edition; Dedication, etc., dated "Middleboro this 5 of Decemb. 1641" [for 1648] and signed "Beauchamp Plantagenet," pp. (6); Text, pp. 32.

This second edition is even more rare than the first. See Force's "Tracts," Vol. II., where the edition of 1648 is reprinted. See also Vol. XIII., No. 52434, XIV., 59667, and [Varlo (C.)]

The following also relates to New Albion:

A | Direction | for Adventvrers | With small stock to get two for one, | and good land freely: | And for Gentlemen, and all Servants, Labourers, and | Artificers to live plentifully. | And the true Description of the healthiest, pleasantest, and richest | plantation of new Albion, in North Virginia, proved by thirteen witnesses. | Together with, | A Letter from Master Robert Evelin, that lived there many | yeares, shewing the particularities, and excellency thereof. | With a briefe of the charge of victuall, and necessities, to transport | and buy stocke for each Planter, or Labourer, there to get his | Master 50 l per Annum, or more in twelve trades, and | at 10 l charges onely a man. | Printed in the yeare, 1641. | 4to, 4 leaves. 63312

A tract of the greatest rarity. The only copy I know of is in the library of Mr. C. H. Kalbfleisch of New York. It comprises a brief description of the country, signed by "Captain Brown, Captain Clayborn, Robert Evelin," and ten others, followed by "Master Evelins Letter." It was reprinted by Plantagenet in his "Description," supra.

In the Epistle to this edition Winslow mentions another London reprint of the "Platform" as follows : "It would be too long for me to insert the many Things that have occasioned the Delay of Reprinting it ; But meeting of late with a Coppy therof Reprinted, not only in a disorderly way, but very Falsly, to the great prejudice of the Work ; the Proofs in the margent (amongst other gross Errors) not rightly placed, and so not proving the matter against which they are set ; I made it therefore my work to Suppress that Impression and have gained a Promise, They shall never come to publick sale."

[n. p.] 1621. | A., BA., J.C.B. 63367

Collation: Engraved title, containing portraits of "S. Brandanus" and "Bvell. Catalonus," and below the date, an oval engraving of the two continents; Dedication, "Vniverso venerabilissimo religiosissimoq̃ Monachorum cætui Ordinis S. P. N. Benedicti. Imprimis autem, & cum primis pietatis, ac liberalium Studiosorum gratiosissimo Patrono Admodum Reverendo Domino Dr. Casparo Plautio, Monasterij Seittenstötten-sis in Austria inferiori Abbati dignissimo, Theologo; ac Philosophiæ Doctori clarissimo, Domino Patri meo in Christo observandissimo." etc., signed "Don F. Honorius Philoponus, Monachus S. Benedicti" (4) pages; text, pp. 1-101, on verso of which is a list of the plates entitled "In Annotationem Bibliopolæ." 18 Plates, all numbered excepting the first, which is a full length portrait of Columbus, with a globe or circular map above him, and the inscription "Almirante de nauios para las Indias," engraved by Wolf. Kilian.

There is another edition, with the same title and date, which contains more preliminary and supplementary matter, and an extra plate. Collation: Engraved title, 1621; Dedication as above, followed by "Ad Benevolvm Ordinis Monastici S. Benedicti Lectorem," together (6) pages; Plate of an Owl, with verses above and below, and beneath all, "Ad finem præfationis ad Lectorem;" "Observatio de Magnete Navtico" (4) pages; text, pp. 1-101, followed by "Vaticinium De Messia. Et Evangelij ipsius Prædicatoribus" on p. 101, and on verso by "In primis," etc. (a list of names); one leaf containing "Ordinis S. P. Benedicti," and below, "In Annotationem Bibliopolæ," followed on verso by "Errata." 18 numbered Plates. Some copies contain at the end of the volume another extra plate of Columbus, dated 1622.

This curious work contains the relations of the early Benedictine missionaries who first came over with Columbus. It is filled with miraculous accounts of their labors, and one of the plates represents St. Brandan celebrating mass on the back of a large fish, where one of the ships had been stranded in mid-ocean. A specimen of Indian music is given on pp. 35-36. Many of the plates represent scenes in aboriginal life. It is supposed that the author was a monk of the convent of Seittenstöt in Lower Austria, named Caspar Plautius or Plautus, and that he wrote the book under the assumed name of Honorius Philoponus—spelled "Philonus" in one of the editions—in order that he might dedicate it to himself.

"This is one of the impudentest books known. The author's real name was Caspar Plautus, a monk at Linz in Austria. In the most fulsome style, under his assumed name of Philoponus, he inscribes the work to himself in a long and highly complimentary Dedication. He accuses the De Brys, in their great collection of Voyages, of telling outrageous lies, forgetting apparently his own whackers."—H. STEVENS, Bibliotheca Historica.

Concerning the book and its authorship see Placcius, "Theatrum Anon. et Pseudon.," Weller, "Index Pseudon.," Humboldt, "Examen Critique," III. 269, and Wynkelmann, "Der Americanischen Neuen Welt Beschreibung."

ments, one leaf; 22 preliminary leaves; Text, 132 leaves; colophon, one leaf, recto blank.

This important edition of Pomponius Mela, with the scholia, "Loca aliquot," etc.
of Joachim Vadianus, or Watt, although commenced as early as 1514, was not completed and published until 1518. The annotations contain several references to Vespuccius and the discoveries of the Spaniards and Portuguese, and the appended epistle of Vadianus to Agricola, first printed in 1515, contains on folio 128 the passage in which the new world is called America. The book is sometimes found bound with the Solinus issued by the same publisher in 1520, which contains a map. See also [Watt (Joachim)].

Collation: Title within an elaborate woodcut border engraved by Hans Holbein, one leaf; 19 preliminary leaves; text, pp. 220; "Joachimus Vadianus candido lectori," one leaf; "Loca aliquot ex Pomponianis commentariis repetita," etc., 31 leaves;
"Joachimi Vadiani, ad Rvdolphum Agricolam rhetvm epistola," etc., 11 leaves; colophon with the device of the printer, one leaf, recto blank.

This is a new edition, entirely revised. The passage relating to America is on the recto of the leaf following Ff4. A copy in the British Museum contains the map by Apianus which was prepared for the Solinus published by Alantse at Vienna in 1520, and some bibliographers have claimed that it belongs to the book. This, however, is a matter of doubt. The text contains no allusion to such a map, and it is probable that the work was issued without it. See [Harrison] "Bib. Am. Vet.," No. 112;

Stevens "Bib. Historica," pp. 107-108, and "Bib. Geographica & Historica," pp. 209-210.

The map of the world prepared by Oronce Finé in 1531 and inserted in the Novus Orbis of Huttich, Paris, 1532, was afterwards added to this edition, with a new superscription by the publisher, Christian Wechel, dated "Ex scuto Basiliensi. M. D. XLI." This curious globe-map, divided into two compartments, and entitled "Nova, et integra vniuersi orbis descriptio," includes the results of the new discoveries. Among the inscriptions are "Terra Australis recenter inuenta, sed nondum plenè cognita," "Brasiliæ regio," "Regio Patalis," "Spaignola," "Cuba," "Yucatanis," etc. The southern continent is called "America;" and Mexico, "Terra florida," "Baccalar," etc., are represented as parts of Asia. The first issue of this map was reproduced in facsimile by Henry Stevens in "Historical and Geographical Notes," New Haven, 1869.

Pomponius Mela, with the commentary of Vadianus, was reprinted: Basiliæ, 1549, 1555, 1557, and 1577, in folio. See also Solinus (C. J.)

[POWNALL.] State of the Constitution of the Colonies. [London? 1769?] Folio, pp. 4. P. 64833

"This 'State of the Constitution of the Colonies' was printed at the close of 1769, and communicated to various persons, with a view to prevent mischief from the misunderstandings between the government of Great Britain and the people of America. I have taken the liberty of ascribing it to Governor Pownall, as his name could have been no secret at the time."—SPARKS' "FRANKLIN," IV. 270.

POWNALL. Three Memorials most humbly addressed to the Sovereigns of Europe, Great Britain and North America. By T. Pownall ... London: T. Cadell ... MDCCLXXXIV. 8vo, pp. xx, (2), viii, 127, (4), 58, (4), 139, (2). BA. 64834

POWNALL. A | Topographical Description | of such Parts of | North America | as are contained in | The (annexed) Map | of the | Middle British Colonies, &c. | In | North America. | By T. Pownall, M.P. | Late Governor, &c. &c. of his Majesty's Provinces of Massachusetts | Bay and South Carolina, and Lieutenant Governor of New | Jersey. | London: | Printed for J. Almon ... | MDCC-LXXXVI. | Folio, pp. vi, 46, Appendix, 16. Map, 32½ x 19½ inches.

There are copies on large paper (17 x 10 ¾ inches), and with the map colored.

A republication of Evans's map and analysis of 1755, with improvements and additions. Governor Pownall says that "a pirated copy of Evans's map, was in a most audacious manner, published by Jeffreys, and falsely sold as Evans's map improved, by which that very laborious and ingenious, but poor man, was deprived of the benefit of his work. Owing to the ignorance of the engraver it can scarcely be called a copy, and, as respects the face of the country, might as well be a map of the moon." See "Monthly Review," LVII. 315.

The appendix contains "Extracts from the Journal of Captain Harry Gordon, chief engineer in the Western Department in North America, who was sent from Fort Pitt on the River Ohio, down the said river, etc., to the Illinois, in 1766," and "Journal of Christopher Gist down the Ohio River in 1750."

In 1779 the author prepared a new and enlarged edition for the press which was never printed. The new matter, introduced in manuscript, included the narrative of his travels in America, and an additional map of the southern colonies. This interesting volume was sold by Messrs. Bangs, Brother & Co., at New York, in 1854, for $53. See Catalogue of Welford's sale, Nos. 1346, 1342.

"These memorials were drawn up solely for the King's use, but were first presented to his ministers. They contain a plan for a truce with the American colonies, preliminary to a peace, which, not being acceptable to all the ministers, were returned to Governor Pownall without being shown to his Majesty."—Monthly Review, LXVI. 387.

The|Book|of| Common-Prayer,| And Administration of the| Sacraments. | And Other| Rites and Ceremonies of the Church,| According to the Use of the| Church of England. | Together with the| Psalter,| or| Psalms of David,| Pointed as they are to be Sung or Said in| Churches. | Printed and Sold by William Bradford in New-York, 1710. Sm. 4to. H.S.P. 64998

Collation: The Royal arms, recto blank, 1 leaf; title, verso blank, 1 leaf; Rules, etc., 12 leaves (a-c in fours); Calendar, 4 leaves; The Order how, etc., 2 leaves (sig. a); The Order of Morning Prayer, 64 leaves (A-Q in fours); The Psalter, etc., 42 leaves (R-Bb in fours, Cc-Ee in twos); A New Version of the Psalms of David, Fitted to the Tunes Used in Churches. By N. Tate and N. Brady, pp. 77, (2).

Of extreme rarity, being the first edition of the Book of Common Prayer printed in America. The only perfect copy known was discovered in 1870 and is now in the library of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. A copy lacking the frontispiece and title-page was sold at the Brinley sale in 1880 for $340.

Although arrangements had been made with Bradford by the officers of Trinity Church, New York, to print "Comon Prayer Books" as early as August, 1704, there is no evidence that the work was undertaken before 1710; and a reference in the church records, under date of April 26, 1711, to "the great loss he [Bradford] has sustained in printing the Common Prayer and New Version of the Psalms," shows that it was not remunerative. The type and paper used in the "Prayer Book" are somewhat different from that in the appended "New version of the Psalms," which was evidently printed with improved facilities several months afterwards, and perhaps also issued as a separate work. The paper of the four leaved "Calendar" is also of a different kind.

Reissued with a slightly different title as follows:

The Book of | Common-Pra[yer,] | And Administrat[ion of the] | Sacra[ments,] | A[nd Other] | Rites & Cere[monies of the Church,] | Acco[r]ding to the Use of the| Churc[h of England. | Together with the| Psa[lter|or|] | Psalms [of David,] | Pointed as [they are to be Sung or Said in] Churches. | Printed and Sold by William Bradford,] in [New York, 1710?] Sm. 4to. H.S.P.

The portions of the title inclosed in brackets are lacking in the only known copy. In the original issue Psalms xii-xvii were omitted, through an oversight of the printer; but in this copy the deficiency is supplied by a single printed leaf inserted between R2 and R3, containing the missing psalms, with a duplicate of verse 8 of Ps. xi. A license to print Tate and Brady's book, 1 leaf, recto blank, is prefixed to the New Version of the Psalms. In other respects the volume is identical with the preceding. See Wallace's "Address," pp. 81-83.

The Book of Common Prayer, ... according to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; together with the Psalter, or Psalms of David. Wilmington (D.): Printed by Peter Brynberg. 1803. 18mo. 65000

A curious edition of the "Prayer Book," as altered to suit the constitution of the young republic. The writer of an interesting note on Peter Brynberg, Printer, published in the "Historical Magazine," Oct., 1858, doubts whether "any copies of this edition are extant." See "Hist. Mag.," II. 306.

The "Maison Rustique" is a manual of practical agriculture for the use of the colonists. The Galibi grammar and dictionary were compiled from the works of Boyer, Pelleprat, Biet, Barrère, Labat, and others, by a certain M. de la Sauvage, whose initials appear on the title-page. It is often found separate, although the appended approbation includes both works.

An abridgment of the dictionary is included in Martius', "Beiträge zur Ethnographie und Sprachenkunde ... Brasiliens," vol. II., pp. 325-370, from which a small number of copies were separately printed with the title: Dictionnaire Galibi. Dictionarium gallice, latine et galibi. ... Auctum sermone latino edidit Cor. Fr. The Present State of New-England Impartially Considered, In a Letter to the Clergy. [Boston. 1689.] 4to, pp. 44. C., M.

Corrected title of our No. 46722, Vol. XI. This extremely rare tract has no separate title-page, and the above caption is followed by these words: "Two Moneths have already past away, since with Astonishment I have beheld the most deplorable Condition of our Countrey," etc. Signed at the end "F. L.," with a Postscript of eleven lines and an Errata of seven lines. It was written by John Palmer, a member of the council of Sir Edmund Andros, while in prison at Boston, as a vindication of the deposed government, and was first circulated in manuscript and anonymously; but in 1690 a new edition, with the author's name on the title-page, was printed in London, entitled "An Impartial Account of the State of New England" (our No. 58359, Vol. XIV.), in which are several "alterations, additions, and omissions, particularly the omission of a set argument, bolstered up with numerous authorities, digested under nine heads, and covering some twenty pages, against the sin of rebellion—an argument which would not have been opportune at the court of the Liberator, in the second year of his reign." See Palfrey's "Hist. of New England," II., 582-3, and the "Andros Tracts," I., 21-62, where the London edition is reprinted.

The Present State of New-England, With Respect to the Indian War. Wherein is an Account of the true Reason thereof, (as far as can be Judged by Men.) Together with most of the Remarkable Passages that have happened from the 20th of June, till the 10th of November, 1675. Faithfully Composed by a Merchant of Boston, and Communicated to his Friend in London. Licensed Decemb. 13, 1675. Roger L'Estrange. [Design.] London, Printed for Dorman Newman, at the Kings-Arms in the Poultry, and at the Ship and Anchor at the Bridg-foot on Southwark side. 1675. Sm. folio, pp. 19. BA., J.C.B., C. + [Ibid.] 1676. Sm. folio, pp. 19. H. 65324

In some copies of both editions the last two pages are mispaged 19 and 81, for 18 and 19. A specimen of the Indian language of Massachusetts (from Eliot's translation of the Bible) is given on p. 11. For two other tracts by the same writer, both of which are signed "N. S."—the real name of the author is unknown—see "A Continuation of the State of New England," Vol. XIII., No. 52623, and "A New and Further Narrative," Vol. XIII., No. 52445.

An edition of about 300 copies was reprinted, Boston: Josiab Drake. MDCCCXXXIII. 18mo, pp. 69. In this edition the "Present State" fills pp. 1-38, and is followed by the "Continuation of the State of New England." Nearly 250 copies of this reprint were afterwards bound up, as a part of the book, with a portion of the first edition of Drake's "Old Indian Chronicle," Boston, 1836, the balance of which was completed by another reprint of the two tracts, in which the "Present State" fills pp. 1-37. In the enlarged edition, Boston, 1867, the same tract fills pp. 119-169. See also Vol. XIII., Nos. 52616, 52638, 52761, 55060-3, "A True Account of the most Considerable Occurrences," and "The War in New-England visibly ended."

The Present State of New English Affairs. See Mather (I.), Vol. XI., No. 46723.

One of the earliest newspaper extras—if it may be so called—printed in America. It contains "An extract of a Letter from Mr. Mather, to the Governour, Dated Sept. 3, 1689, from Deal in Kent," "A Passage extracted from the publick News Letter, Dated July 6, 1689," and some passages "Extracted from a Letter of Mr. Mather, to his Son, Dated Sept. 2, 1689." Reprinted in New Hampshire Hist. Soc. "Collections," vol. I., pp. 252-255; vol. VIII., pp. 458-460; and in the "Andros Tracts," II. 15-18. The original printed sheet is preserved among the State Papers at Boston.

This tract, which was originally intended only for America, was translated into French by the celebrated Mirabeau. The doctor speaks of the American revolution as "a revolution which opens a new prospect in human affairs, and begins a new æra in the history of mankind—a revolution by which Britons themselves will be greatest gainers, if wise enough to improve properly the check that has been given to the despotism of their ministers, and to catch the flame of virtuous liberty which has saved their American brethren."—RICH. PRIMER. See New England Primer, Vol. XIII. 52713-34.

"For a considerable time the New-England Primer was almost the only elementary book in general use in the New-England Colonies. The Psalter was used as a succeeding book, and children often went from the lessons of the Primer to the Psalms of David. The Youth's Instructor was used about as early as the middle of the last century . . . The spelling book of Thomas Dilworth, a school-master at Wapping, in England, who died in 1781, probably followed the Youth's Instructor, and continued in use some years after the American Revolution closed."—NEW HAMPSH. HIST. SOC. COLLECTIONS, IV. 35. Early editions of the New England Primer are very rare, especially those printed before the revolution. Mr. Brinley's copies of six editions, dated 1737, 1768, 1770, 1776, 1777 and [1790], several of which are supposed to be unique, were sold together for $612.

An important work on the most interesting period of New England history. It was carefully compiled from a large number of authentic records and relations, mostly in the exact words of the respective authorities. Volume I. brings the chronology down to September 7, 1630. Nearly twenty years after, the work was resumed under the following title :

Annals of New-England. By Thomas Prince, A.M. Vol. II. Numb. I. ... Boston : Printed and Sold by S. Kneeland in Queen-Street, and by J. and T. Leverett in Cornhill. (Price Six Pence Lawful Money each Number.) [1755.] 8vo, pp. 32, and covers. Vol. II. Numb. II. Boston : Printed by B. Edes and J. Gill, in Kingstreet, for S. Kneeland in Queen-Street, and for J. and T. Leverett in Cornhill. [1755.] pp. 33-64, and covers. Vol. II. Numb. III. [Ibid. 1755.] pp. 65-96, and covers. H., M., N.

These three numbers, which cover the period from September 28, 1630, to August 5, 1633—breaking off in the middle of a sentence—comprise all that were ever published, and are very rare. The covers contain several advertisements and notes, and a circular soliciting information. This portion of the second volume was reprinted in the Massachusetts Historical Society "Collections," second series, vol. VII. A new edition of the entire work as follows :

... A Proclamation. Whereas a Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between the United States ... and ... Hanover, was concluded ... at Berlin ... [1840] ... as follows ... [Washington. 1841.] Folio. 65935

A Proclamation touching the Sealing of Tobacco. ... March 30. God save the King [Chas. I.]. Imprinted at London, by Bonham, Norton, and John Bill. 1627. Folio, 1 leaf. 65936

To allow the importation of Spanish tobacco and to fix the sealing of tobacco from the American Plantations. Superseded by the following :

A Proclamation to encourage and protect the Colonies [Virginia and the Summer Islands]. ... Aug. 9. God save the King. [London.] 1627. Folio, 1 leaf. 65937

"To pluck up and utterly destroy all Tobacco growne at home, to stop the importation of Tobacco from Spaine, and to cause all Tobacco sent from America to be stamped 'with a seale.'"

This proclamation gives an amusing instance of Charles' reluctance at countenancing tobacco as a fit commodity for his subjects to trade with. From his language he evidently appeared to have an itching desire to annihilate every tobacco plant and pipe that could be found in his dominions.

A Proclamation [by King Charles I. against the use of Tobacco, especially that grown "in our American plantations, whereby the bodies of our subjects are in danger to be utterly corrupted"]. God save the King: Imprinted by Robert Barker at London, 1630. Folio, 2 sheets. 65938

"This is the English reprint of the 'Propositions' with the addition of Chauncy's 'Anti-Synodalia,' separately paged, but without a special title-page. [See Vol. III., No. 12304.] Thomas ('Hist. of Printing,' 1. 255) puts this edition of the 'Anti-Synodalia' ('4to. 38 pages,' 1662) in the list of books printed at Cambridge by Samuel Green, and says it 'was reprinted in London.' It is nearly certain that no American edition had been printed when, in February, 1664, the Rev. John Allin published his 'Animadversions upon the Anti-Synodalia Americana, a Treatise printed in Old England.' In his preface Mr. Allin mentions the Antisynodalia which 'came to our hands' and 'another Essay [John Davenport's] of the same nature [which] was here published.' The type of the n. p. volume of 1662 differs from that of the Cambridge edition of the 'Propositions,' and is unlike any that Green is known to have used in Cambridge."—J. H. TRUMBULL.
